SEBASTIANI IS ENLARGING PLANT

Cannery Is Being Equipped With New Units For Handling More Tomatoes And String Beans This Season.

Sam Sebastiani is preparing to handle three times the volume of business he did last season at the big cannery which is Sonoma's leading industrial enterprise and in order to turn out the orders he already holds for his products, he has purchased and will install new machinery for preserving string beans and a new unit for handling tomatoes. The addition of this equipment will enlarge the plant about one third and will necessitate the employment of many more people than last year.

Mr. Sebastiani has already contracted for the sale of about half of the 1919 pack and could dispose of all that he expects to turn out. He however prefers the watchful waiting policy until prices become more firmly established. Meanwhile the big factory is being put in shape for handling this year's pack and Mr. Sebastiani is busy figuring out the extent of the acreage he is to put into tomatoes and string beans, for the enterprising cannery man expects to grow much of his own produce besides all he will buy from other Sonoma Valley growers.

BULLOTTI ESTATE EXCEEDS FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS

Fred Bulotti, by Attorney Robert A. Poppe, filed in probate court Tuesday final account in the estate of the late Vergilio Bulotti and petition for distribution. The executor reports $57,430.65 as the total value of the estate or $4000 greater than the appriasement. The expenses of administration and charges amounted to $5626.03, leaving $51,804.62 for distribution. The heirs are Mrs. Beatrice Bulotti, the widow; George and Fred Bulotti, sons; and Mrs. Lily Goepfert, a daughter. The petitioner is a son.

BRIDEGROOM MEETS WITH ACCIDENT

Rodney Prestwood, whose marriage to Miss Louise Cailleaud was announced last week, had the misfortune to suffer a fall from a scaffold with his fellow employees at Mare Island this week and the young man received a badly sprained ankle. He has been up at the home of his wife's folks recuperating and is under treatment by Dr. Gobar.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Mouyer of El Verano are painting their cottages and the new spring coat is adding much to the attractivness of the property. Ambroze Lazaar is the chief artist on the job.

Mrs. Geo. Breitenbach visited with her neice in San Francisco Sunday.

home from France and will go down to San Francisco to welcome her soldier boy.

FALLS DEAD IN HER HOME

Mrs. Hugo Kuster of Glen Ellen a Victim of Heart Failure

Mrs. Hugo Kuster of Glen Ellen, residing in the foothills back of the Ashe place, dropped dead at about 12:45 o'clock Monday as she was preparing to go out shopping. She had been conversing with neighbors about noon time and after lunch dressed herself and was all ready to leave the house when she was suddenly seized with a heart attack and died instantly. Her lifeless body was found in the bath room.

Deceased lady leaves a husband and a number of other relatives to mourn her untimely death. She was 49 years of age.

Mrs. Kuster was a niece of the late Mrs. Simon of Vineburg and administratrix of her estate.

She was a sister of A. F. Ludemann and foster sister of F. C. Boss.

Thefuneral took place in San Francisco Thursday.

AN ANSWER TO WHY DOES SONOMA NOT GROW

An article appearing in this week's issue of the "Expositor-Forum" endeavors to explain "why Sonoma does not grow." The main reason noted by the editor is that none of Sonoma valley products are for sale in any of the stores in town. Has the editor made proper inquiry to verify his assertion? Evidently not, for on our shelves and sold every day can be found California cheese, manufactured by our local cheese factory; products of the Califoria Glove Co., (we handle no gloves other than those produced by this company;) bread from the Sonoma Valley Bakery; all kinds of dried fruits and beans raised here in the valley, and Sebastiani's tomatoes, better than which none can be found. (I have used them myself and therefor know of what I speak) Incidently I wish to remark that the "expose" of the unfortunate difficulty at the cannery which was written up to appear as a deliberate and knowing act on the part of Mr. Sebastiani, has certainly not tended toward increasing a demand for Sonoma products. What we need is boosters, not knockers, then Sonoma will grow.

Signed,

WM. F. CLEWE.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie McKinnon and children will move to Concord or Martinez as Mr. McKinnon, lately home from France, has secured a fine position in the Bay Point shipyards. Mrs. McKinnon has resigned her position with the firm of Leveroni & Maffei and does so with regret as she speaks highly of her employees. She was with the firm a year and a half.

Mrs. Amelia Bates, who has been in San Francisco for her health, has returned home greatly improved.

BETTER BABIES SONOMA HAS 'EM

Child Welfare Congress After Three Days Session Here Shows Sonoma Babies Lead

Better babies?—none better has any section than the pretty, healthy youngsters of Sonoma valley, so say the medicos and nurses who examined more than sixty from the chubby cherubs, a few months old, to the sturdy kiddies of school age. They were all a fine lot of children with but few defects and these all corrective.

The congress under the direction of Mrs. Agnes Ryland took place at the Womans clubhouse and was well attended. The children examined by the attending physicians each day were registered, weighed and given a certificate. Many were 100 per cent babies. Doctors Thomson, Gobar and Hays were delighted with the results.

It looked like a kewpie show with all the cherubs gathered there and many were the expressions of admiration. One father, who peeked in, said: "bring me a girl," while others would have liked to have kidnapped some of the chubby boys.

"Come to the concert?" good naturedly asked one of the ladies in charge of the congress as some of the frightened babies protested the inquiry into their welfare. Despite a little crying and fussing, great results were accomplished and it will all result in valuable records for Uncle Sam.

C. G. Schober, of F. Duhrings', is to sever his connection with that firm and will go to San Francisco to enter the business world there.

The school elections passed off quietly. The High School reelected its trustees as did Sonoma and many of the districts. In El Verano a contest between Messrs Cliff and W. Kearney, resulted in the election of Mr. Cliff.

Miss Marie Minkel has been promoted to a fine position with the S. P., and is now in an office at the Ferry building, San Francisco.

Segeant Adrian Voisin of the 44th Infantry, a cousin of Mrs. Rodney Prestwood, was a visitor at Buena Vista Castle last Sunday. He went over the top five times and otherwise proved himself a hero in the recent war.

Local fishermen were out in force last Tuesday, opening day for the trout season. Ye editor, Walter L. Murphy, and that veteran of the rod, Billy Fowler, got the limit above Glen Ellen. Jack Valente, Dr. Russell Morris and and Paul Robbin also fished with considerable luck in Sonoma and Hooker creeks.

BASE BALL GAME AT BOYES SPRINGS TODAY

The Sonoma High School baseball team will play the Analy team from Sebastopol at Boyes Springs grounds today (Saturday) at 2 p. m. and it should be an interesting game as Sonoma beat Healdsburg last Saturday 14 to 1.

CHARTER MEMBERS GUESTS OF HONOR

Order of Eastern Star To Entertain Four of Original Founders of Valley of the Moon Chapter

In addition to the regular work of the Lodge in initiating two new members into Valley of the Moon Chapter of Eastern Star next Thursday night, there will be tendered a recepion to the four surviving charter members of the chapter, Mesdames Dora Stofen, Dora Akers, Cynthia Goodman and Mary Shaw. The evening complimentary to these esteemed ladies has long been contemplated by the gracious matron of the chapter, Mrs. Burmester, who is leaving nothing undone to make this a memorable occasion. She has appointed an able committee consisting of Mesdames Gale, Cutter and Weaver, to arrange the details of the evening and she herself has planned many delightful features.

The banquet will be appointed in an old fashioned way with candle lights and quaint boquets gracing the dining room. There will be old songs rendered by a quartette, guests of honor are to be called for in automobiles and after a royal reception will be feted and given a never-to-be-forgotten time. All the ladies have accepted in gracious style the pretty invitation extended to them by Worthy Matron Burmester and her sisters of the Chapter.

Valley of the Moon Chapter, O. E. S., was organized Dec. 5, 1884 at Poppe's Hall, Sonoma, Morning Star Chapter of Petaluma officiating. The charter members were Arvilla McHarvey, Cynthia Goodman, Sarah Morse, Dora McIntyre, Ellen Cassebohm, Emma Morse, Mary Shaw, Dora Stofen, Willis Goodman, Hannah Shaw and Eliza Tobin.

AGED BROTHER DIES IN COALINGA

R. Jonathan Cheney, a brother of J. M. Cheney of this place, died at his home in Coalinga, Fresno county, this week. He was the only living brother of Sonoma's former postmaster and was one of the pioneer Cheney family who came here from Illinois in the early fifties and settled in Sonoma valley. He had passed his eightieth birthday and had reared a large family which survive him. Mr. Cheney was a typical American and a man of excellent traits.

The funeral took place in Bakersfield, Thursday but the brother of deceased did not go down for the funeral from here as he is 80 years of age and the trip was believed to be too strenuous for him

Many of our older residents remember R. J. Cheney and will regret to hear that he has crossed to the Great Beyond

The Sonoma branch of the Red Cross will meet Tuesday night. A good atendance requested.

56 JACK LONDON STORIES FOR MOVIES

New York Moving Picture Corporation Buys Right To Produce All Novels and Stories of Noted Author

A deal has just been closed whereby Mrs. Charmian London, widow of Jack London, noted author, disposes of the right to produce in the movies 56 of his novels and stories to a big moving picture corporation of New York city whose representative Mr. Shurtleff has been on the coast to get Mrs. London's signature to the contract. The contract to produce six of his great stories already famous in the film world had recently expired, so this left the way open to make new contracts and the one whereby Mrs. London sells outright the privelege of producing all of London's books and short stories on the screen was considered a splendid deal as the concern to handle pictures is backed by money and excellent people, the corporation to be known as the Jack London Picture Corporation. While the figures which the contract carries with it have not been given out, it is understood to be a sum of money flattering indeed to the genius of the young author who immortalized the Valley of the Moon and whose prolific writing has been conceded to be of enduring popularity.

Mrs. London has been in San Francisco the past week bidding Martin Johnson his wife bon voyage prior to their sailing for the South Sea Islands whose wildness they will again explore and film for a moving picture concern. The Johnsons have been in Nw York preparing for this work as pictures taken by them last year created a great furore in the movie world. This time the intrepid travelers will have a body guard of 100 natives to protect them from savagery while reproducing the primative life of unexplored country. Martin Johnson was with the Londons on their famous cruise of the Snark.

SCRAP OVER SONOMA WINES

Would Be Buyer of Famous Sonoma Valley Vintage Sues L. Kunde, Who Alleges That Buyer Did Not Appear On Time

Not only are Sonoma valley wines being eagerly bought up at unprecedented high prices but they are now actually being bought for in court, as is instanced by the suit which has been brought by the New Piedmonte Wine Company of San Francisco against L. Kunde of the Wildwood vineyards for $6900 damages for breach of contract. The wine company alleges that Mr. Kunde failed to deliver 46,000 gallons of wine at 60 cents a gallon, which was the price F. O. B., Wildwood; that the winemaker "concluded he could make more money by breaking the contract than by keeping it.

Mr. Kunde states that Secondono Alciati et al, representing the New Piedemonte Wine Company. negotiated with him for the purchase of a consignment of wine and set the day and hour to come up to Wildwood and close the deal. At the appointed time the well known wine maker went to the train to meet the San Francisco buyer but he did not appear as agreed. Fearing that he got off at the wrong station Mr. Kunde drove to Glen Ellen in an attempt to locate the purchaser of his vintage there, but without success. He then came back to his ranch and figured that perhaps the buyer had gone up to Santa Rosa by mistake and would appear on the afternoon south bound S. P. train. Meanwhile Sam Sebastiani, the local wine man, appeared on the scene with an offer to take the 46,000 gallons of choice vintage—red wine of the Cabarnet type—at 60 cents, F. O. B., Wildwood. When the afternoon S. P. train failed to bring the original negotiator for the wine, Mr. Kunde concluded that the purchasers hand changed their minds and at any rate as they had failed to keep their agreement, he closed the deal with Mr. Sebastiani as principal.

The choice wine was shipped to New York with the exception of a few thousand gallons which Mr. Sebastiani had hauled to his cellars here at Sonoma. It developed that the city buyer appeared at the Kunde ranch later on and tried to compel the wine delivery to the Piedemonte company, explaining that he had come up to the valley on the date agreed upon but by mistake got off the train at Sonoma where he was detained on business.

Attorney Picard appears for the plaintiff in the case which has been transferred for trial from the San Francisco to the Sonoma county courts.

Mr. Kunde's wines are among the finest of the red wines produced in the state and when bottled would command the fanciest prices to be found on any wine card in New York City or other big centers where connoiseurs are seeking rare vintage.

GLEN ELLEN HONORS SOLDIERS

Community Does Itself Proud Thursday Night At Fine Affair For J. M. Sobbe and Comrades Home From The War.

The "welcome home" to J. Milton Sobbe, hero of the Argonne Forest, and arranged by Mesdames E. Thierkoff and J. Glenn assisted by other patriotic ladies of that section grew into a general reception to all the young men of the upper end of Sonoma valley who are back from the war. As a result, Pancrazi Auditorium was thronged with friends of Mr. Sobbe and the other boys and they were given a right royal welcome.

Friends gathered at the Sobbe home and escorted the young man, of whom that community is so justly proud, to the big auditorium, and then there was a rousing reception and exchange of greetings between old friends and comrades in arms. There was dancing, music and a program with a beautiful speech of welcome b Mrs. Cromwell of the Glen Ellen Womans Improvement Club.

About 11 o'clock, all were invited to Mayflower hall, which the ladies had decorated handsomely in flags and ferns and where in the center, a special table for the soldier boys had been set. A bounteous feast was served, red, white and blue salad, originated and prepared by Mrs. Steve Prout, being one of the features. There were over 50 fine cakes from Glen Ellen mothers, wives and sweethearts, sandwiches, olives, coffee, fruits and ice cream. Everyone present was invited to partake of the banquet. At the head of the tables, in large gilt letters, was the word, Welcome, but no word or words could half convey the welcome that was really accorded, nor could one mistake the love and admiration Glen Ellen feels for all its young heroes. Milton Sobbe, radiantly happy, despite the loss of his right arm, was presented with a fine cake decorated in allied silk flags.

The ladies served about 200 guests including the following young men home from the war; Lee Kynoch, Sam Tomlinson, Shirley Weise, Norman Cowan, David Sinclair, Milton Sobbe, Wm. Craib, Clarence Erickson, Jack Luttrell, Max Soley, Maurice Cooper, Victor Thompson, L. Flynn, Lt. Foster, E. T. Stofanni, J. Sassenrath and Mrs. M. McIntyre, Red Cross Nurse.

It was a gala occasion and one of which Glen Ellen feels justly proud.

The R. B. McCords of Glen Ellen are looking forward to the return of their son, R.G. McCord, who has been in France with the 109th Infantry, Co. F. 28th Division. He has fought on four fronts and in all the big battles since his enlistment in Co. K, 3 days before the U. S. A. went into the conflict.

FORMER RESIDENT DROWNED

Capt. H. O. Uhlberg of Wrecked Bark "Albert" One Time Owned Ranch Here.

Capt. H. O. Uhlberg, the 77 year old master of the American bark Albert, who was drowned following the wreck of his ship near Point Reyes this week, formerly owned a ranch here and with his wife, were well known Sonoma residents. They settled down to enjoy life and retire and purchased the David M. Jones ranch from Granville Harris in the Vineburg section some twenty years ago. The call of the sea, however, was too much for Captain Uhlberg and he went back to follow the life which he had known so long. His wife took up her residence in Alameda.

Losing its course in a dense fog, Wednesday, the ship went on a reef and was wrecked. His first mate tried to save the ancient mariner by tieing a rope to his waist and swimming to shore with him but the rope broke and Uhlberg was drowned. The ship was returning from New Zeland.

DANCING SCHOOL BEGINS AUSPICIOUSLY

The dancing school inagurated by the Womans Club, made a very auspicious beginning last Saturday afternoon at the clubhouse with Miss Virginia Pommeroy of Santa Rosa as teacher. The following young folks were there from 2 p. m. until 4 p. m. and showed much aptitude for the intricate steps. Olive Lund, Coleman Campbell, Florence Campbell, Inez Basaglia, Isabelle Bridges, Virginia Hooper, Cecil Hunter, Roy Hooper, Maxine Ring, Doris Ring, Joy Sychrowsky, Arthur Sycrowsky, Elizabeth Lewis, Maxwell Johnson, Yvonne Roquette and Allan Thomson.

In the evening the older young folks were in attendance and from 8 to 10 o'clock there was a pleasant time enjoyed by those present and particular interest in "Chimmie" one of the newer dances.

The classes will meet today and this evening again as they are to be regular weekly social affairs at the clubhouse.

ESTATE OF MRS. STEARNS

Attorney Frederick T. Duhring on Thursday filed in the Superior Court the petition of his wife, Mrs. Leonora Stearns Duhring, for letters of administration on the estate of her mother, the late Mrs. Martha T. Stearns, who died March 20, leaving an estate of about $30,000, consisting of money in bank, bonds and mortgages. The petitioner is the only daughter and sole heir.

The Sonoma Elks have raised over $200 for the Salvation Army drive. H. F. Bates, R. Emparan, Al Fingers, Jack Kelly, Jim Baines and other members are well pleased with the response.

By All Means Amend The Community Property Law

AN IMPORTANT PIECE of legislation is pending at Sacramento relative to changing the present community property law and we trust that with the knowledge legislators from Sonoma county have of the workings of the present law, whereby a husband comes into all community property at the death of his wife, regardless of her children, that they will seek to better it.

There are several famous cases in Sonoma county where the husband became sole sponsor of all property accumulated by himself and a conscientious, hardworking, help-mate and ended up by marrying and putting it into the hands of strangers thus nullifying all the right the children had to what their mother worked for.

The present law is pernicious for it disregards the mother's natural wish and desire to protect her offspring and places their destiny in the hands of the father who quite naturally may re-marry and jeopardize his childrens interest, for should he die without a will, the second wife (his widow) has all the advantage as has been proven. The widow must administer his estate (though accummulated by the first wife) and is endowed with all property exempt from execution, such as life insurance etc. until by the time the residue is arrived at the childern are quite likely to find themselves sadly out of luck.

To forestall this kind of a deal the community property laws should be amended by the Legislafure. It is owed to good mothers who toil and save that their children may be provided for. If the law stepped in and saw to it that this justice was done it would have a tendency to make widowers less likely victims of designing women or adventuresses who can now not only strip them of their fortune but can bring ruination upon hapless children.

In this age of regulation it were a pity that some regulatory legislation were not in the interest of real justice and against so common a frailty as that which results in depriving sons and daughters of their natural inheritance. When a woman dies without enjoying the fruits of her toil, her children, flesh of her flesh and bone of her bone, should get their share of the community property without being subjected to the caprices of fate dependent upon the surviving parent.

As the law now stands children share with the step mother in the residue of the estate if there is no will, but the fees of administration and all the step-mother can claim as a widow comes out of the estate first together with all bills against it before the residue is determined. Thus life savings of first wives and mothers may dwindle to but a paltry sum for their children.

Since the probate law does not accord them full protection in the event of the remarriage of the father, it should most certainly protect them upon the death of their mother by giving them their rights at that time. This is the object of the new community property law sponsored by all women organizations today and being fought for by women legislatros at Sacramento in this session of the Legislature.

A Geoagia Scribe Gets Gay With California

A YOUNG CALIFORNIA soldier who has been located at an aviation Camp in Georgia since he enlisted in the army from Sonoma is all riled up because a newspaper there has burst into flowery song extolling the merits of Georgia and comparing it to California, of course to our disadvantage. The California boy who has lived in a real state is glad the Georgia Editor has got it off his chest, all the hot air about the sunny south, but he writes to us and encloses the ravings of the "Americus Times Record" admonishing us to let its Editor know a few things about California. Well first of all we admire the spirit of the Georgia fellow, the spirit of being a good booster In fact we didn't think the southern states had it in 'em. Our impression has always been that the enervating climate of that section precluded all the real pep that we Westerners know. The ozone of Californina particularly that section about San Francisco bay and the breezy Pacific ocean and that section where rugged mountains loom and the smell of pine or redwood is swept down the canyons is the real natural booster climate. The individual who can rise above Georgia climate and burst into a paeon of praise has the makings of a good promotionist but he should not linger in Georgia. He should come West that his spirit may soar, despite the advice of the St. Paul man who wrote to the commercial secretary of Georgia to stay where he was because Georgia was coming into its own. It may be coming but it won't get far in a race with California.. In fact it never can catch up although the scribe that riled the California soldier boy says, "California cannot hold a candle to Sumpter county." That fellow's bump of conceit is only exceeded by his ignorance of California. California has outgrown the candle stage long, long ago. We shine with an effulgence now that is limited to no candle power and it would make the average Georgia man, black or white, blink with confusion and consternation to gaze upon our richness, productivity and natural beauties.

The Georgia paper says, "California soil demands irrigation." We respectfully invite the author to visit Sonoma county and particularly Sonoma valley whose verdant fields and productive orchards yield bounteous crops without a drop of water other than the gentle rains from heaven and when it comes to crops that will interest Georgia perhaps it won't be digressing too far to point with pride to our chickens of Sonoma county (yes both kinds if you will). We honestly believe that if some of the colored folks down South would visit Petaluma and see "them" chicken roosts over there, lawdy lawdy they'd think it was heaven on earth. Millions of chickens and eggs! And then there are our Sonoma valley vineyards and our wines rivaling the old world vintage as any soldier who has had to drink vin blanc or rouge "over there" will tell you. The garden spot of the world is Sonoma county and her vineyards. No moonshine about that. How crude the soul which knows nothing but the fumes of gin. How far removed from idealism is the individual who cannot know the boquet of our famous California wines.

The Georgia Editor says, he is going to keep plugging away day after day and month after month to let the whole county know Georgia's attractions. Plugging is a good word, brother, for your argument in which you lug in the California comparison is so full of holes it needs plugging. Come West, squire. Come to California. Come to Sonoma county. Let us show you our golden grain fields, our orchards and vineyards, our contented cattle in verdant fields, our olives and orange trees, testimonals enough of tropic fruitfulness and a climate of all year charm. Then and only then will you realize how rediculous you must appear when you take a flier on Pegasus while there are sons of California in your aviation camps or otherwise marooned within the brder lines of your long since famous state.

DO THEY COME BACK?

What is the latest sensation
In Sonoma?
Well there is one!
No fooling
Wireless is not in it
With the mysterious messages
Being received here
Occult phenom has struck the town
Do you get me?
Psychic research like
The Bulletin wrote up in last
Saturday's paper
It's all the rage in Sonoma
When one kind of spirits
Cease to interest
We'll have the other sort
Sonoma is daffy
Over the ouija board
Messages and the like
And they do tell of
Wonderful stunts
And revelations
In some of our best families
The table just gets up
And tangoes
Under the magic touch
Of some wizards
And when it comes to rapping
They say Coffee Dan's ain't in it
Why they say Tom Butler
Jabez Patrick Griffith
And several celebrities that
Crossed the gap
Came back and
Paid their respects
Some one asked what
Sonoma would look like
After July First
And the ouija board
Drew some picture
While the table knocked
Furiously
The picture showed
Clouds of dust
No money for oil or water
No moisture for parched
Throats
No funds in the city treasury
No street lights
Just the moon and spot lights
And all the old maids and old
Batchelors
Rushing round with
Marriage licenses
With a batchelor tax
In effect
Then everybody at the seance
Got excited
Who was not married
And began conjuring up
The likely mates and life
Partners
When suddenly the table
Lurched furiously
So they asked the ouija board
What it meant
Whereupon it wrote
"Ruts in your street!
Don't they jar you?
Our streets are paved
With gold!
We pay no income tax, either"
Just fancy Jabez
On easy street
Some one asked if they had
Fords there
And the reply was
Something just as good
Then there was more
Ructions
And the ouija board wrote
"Fire"
And under it
"Sonoma's burning
Where's your chemical?"
Whereupon everyone
Ran to the door
And listened for the Fire bell
Prophetic?
Perhaps
At any rate
The ouija board
Is the most popular
Font of knowledge in town
The most popular question
"Is the country really going dry?"
On July 1st?
The invariable answer
A question with a question
"Is the country going crazy?"
"Why say," says the ouija.
"You only live once
Those who believe in living
Are not dry
The drys are dead ones
Not live ones
They are hankering
After
The perfection beyond the grave
They don't want to live
They want to die
So they would kill the country
And hasten the coming of the Grim reaper
Why be so revolutionary
When one may shuffle
Off this mortal coil
Any old time
And take up his
Abode
In a spirit land
Where temptation
Dwells not."
Get into touch
With the ouija board
It has great possibilities!

GLEN ELLEN MARINE IS ON HIS WAY HOME

GLEN ELLEN, March 28.—A letter from Philip E. Phillips to his mother, Mrs. P. W. Phillips, is dated Mare Island, March 24. In the letter he says:

"Arrived all O. K. The trip across was a mean one. We had monkeys, about a hundred in all. We also had about 700 Filipinos, new mess attendants, aboard. I have known for some time they were Darwin's 'missing link.' Also the Philippine Independence Commission. Yes, and soldiers and sailors and Hawaiian sailors. After leaving Honolulu we ran into a storm. When about two days out from San Francisco we received orders to turn and get the mine layer, Colonel Armstrong, which was disabled and was leaking. So we had to convoy her in. We sighted land (San Francisco), about 1:30. Say, that was a great sight. There were over 200 marines on board who had been in the tropics 30 months or over. Some of them had their time expire on the way over. We blew horns, yelled and shook hands. Christopher Columbus kissed the earth for the same reason, I'll bet.

"The Red Cross treated us to cigarettes and gum in the San Francisco docks."

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. church will hold their regular monthly meeting in the parlors of the church on Thursday, April 10th. The hostesses will be Mrs. E. Eshback and Mrs. M. Waltz. They extend a welcome to everybody and desire a large attendance.

Cupid is going to be a very busy little god these fine days and only recently he closed a deal between a fine looking Sonoma girl and a young soldier hero from France. The merry month of May they say will find this charming daughter of Sonoma a happy bride.

U. S. TO GUARD BOND HOLDERS FROM CROOKS

Asks for Names of Persons Trading Worthless Stock for Liberty Bonds

The United States government has begun a determined fight against Liberty Bond swindlers to protect the people who patriotically responded to the call for funds to support the war.

All persons who are sent literature or are approached by dealers persuading them to part with their bond holdings for what are considered speculative or doubtful securities have been asked by the government to send the names and addresses of the companies to the Federal Trade Commission, Washington, D. C.

The Federal Trade Commission will call for reports in proper cases and the Federal Trade Act provides that any company or person making a false report to the commission will be heavily fined and imprisoned. The commission points out that the smallest holder can obtain the same price as the shark and that all the expenses of running the fraudulent business of the illicit dealers must be borne by the holder of the bonds.

The government by a successful campaign at this time hopes to convince prospective buyers of the Victory Loan that it is ready to make every effort to stand behind holders of government bonds.

EIGHT CENTS BUYS 5000 HUN HELMETS FOR VICTORY DRIVE

Two Pennies Change to Apply on Purchase of Submarine for Final Loan

One dime with two cents back for change brought 5000 German helmets to the Liberty Loan Committee of the Twelfth Federal Reserve District to be used in the Victory drive.

When C. A. Farnsworth, manager of publicity for this district, heard that Frank R. Wilson, national director of publicity, had bid in 85,000 helmets from the War Department he enclosed ten cents in a letter with a request that he be sent his share of the trophies.

A wire came back the next day saying that 5000 helmets would be shipped with two pennies for change. Mr. Farnsworth wired to keep the change and apply it on a submarine which the twelfth district would like to have to help advertise the campaign.

The helmets will be distributed as prizes during the fifth loan campaign. Suggestions as to how they should be awarded should be sent to C. A. Farnsworth, 420 Sacramento street, San Francisco.

A knowledge of practical everyday economy is essential to success. Acquire that knowledge through systematic saving and the regular purchase of War Savings Stamps.

A SONG THEY ARE SINGING OVER THERE

The following song, to the air of "Silver Threads among the Gold" is said to have attained great popularity among the men of the army of occupation, who are singing it with vim on all occasions.

"Silver Threads Among the Black"

Darling, I am coming back,
Silver threads among the black;
Now that peace in Europe nears,
I'll be back—in seven years.
I'll drop in on you some night,
With my whiskers long and white;
Yes, the war is over, dear,
And we're going home, I hear.
—Chorus—
When the next war comes around,
In the front ranks I'll be found;
I'll rush in again pell-mell,
Yes I will—like hell, like hell!
Home again with you once more—
Say, by nineteen twenty-four;
Once I thought by now I'd be,
Sailing home across the sea,
Back to where you sit and pine,
But—I'm stuck here on the Rhine.
You can hear the gang all curse,
"War is hell, but peace is worse."
—Chorus—

DEANE-MURRAY AUTO CASE IS COMPROMISED

Attorney Carl Barnard has filed notice of dismissal in the Superior Court of the action of Garcia & Maggini Co. vs. Constable J. H. Murray in his official capacity, and suit of Luce Adjustment Co., against Charles Deane et al., both matters having to do with an automobile which had been levied upon for a promissory note. The officer should have made his return as deputy sheriff and this fact is responsible for suit in replevin. The Dean auto was next made the object of a chattel mortgage.

Compromise has been effected of the whole matter in question. Attorney Cockrill was retained to defend Constable Murray and was also engaged as counsel for the Luce concern. The hearing in the case was set for Thursday and this date will now be vacated.

KENWOOD MINISTER IS TO TAKE BRIDE

Miss Erna Meyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Meyer, and sister of Mrs. R. Press Smith of Santa Rosa, who has been superintendent of the large Presbyterian Mission hospital at Poating Fu, China, for the past three years, is to return to California about the middle or latter part of May to become the bride probably in June of the Rev. Robert G. Harbutt, the well known and popular Congregational minister of Kenwood.

Miss Meyer is a graduate nurse who, for a number of years, was office nurse for Dr. S. S. Bogle, a position she gave up to go into the medical missionary work for the Presbyterian church. She was sent to take charge of a modern new hospital and has superintended the teaching of a large force of native nurses in modern scientific methods of caring for the sick.

EFFICIENT OFFICAL WAS VICTIM OF ACCIDENT

Sonoma friends and admirers of Town Marshal F. P. Conner, Cloverdale's 3 in 1 official who was in Sonoma last year in the interest of the municipal ownership of water, will regret to hear that the gentleman was the victim of a serious accident. The "Cloverdale Reveille" has the following to say in regard to it.

"Town Marshal F. P. Conner, who nearly lost his life a week ago when he was knocked down by a runaway horse, is improving. The accident occured on First Street near West last Thursday morning Mr. Conner was conversing with S. A. Toms while the latter was unloading gravel from a wagon. While thus engaged, Sam Visgart's horse, hitched to a light wagon, ran from his stable adjoining J. H. Fletcher's blacksmith shop and passed the gravel wagon, and strange as it may seem, neither man heard or saw the runaway approaching. Mr. Conner was standing in the grass at the edge of the street and Mr. Toms had just climbed into the wagon. When the horse knocked Mr. Conner down the injured man suffered two broken ribs injuries about the face as well as internal injuries. He has since been confined to his home and has suffered considerable pain, but is now getting along nicely and expects to be out in a few days."

Mrs. Bridges, who was formerly employed at the glove factory, has been in San Francisco where she underwent an operation. Her mother and children report that the young matron is doing nicely.

VINEBURG

The election for school trustees was held at Huchicia school house on March 28th. As usual Fred Batto was elected for the people know that he is the right man in the right place. It will take a brighter man than the ancient political boss of Vineburg to down him.

We know a pretty little blue-eyed girl who does not live very far from peaceful Vineburg who has recently received a missive from her "onliest one" in France. He told her of the fine position he now has in France and would like to have her cross the briny deep and become his bride under the sunny skies of La Belle France. He did not say anything about car fare and it is a mighty long hike to sunny France so the girl with "the eyes of blue" goes about her way singing: "I Love You California."

Mrs. Fuller Rochat was the Sunday guest of her parents, Capt. and Mrs. Bosch.

Former City Trustee Chas M Devitt of Sonoma, his wife and daughter, Elizabeth, were visitors at Battos Spur last Monday.

Louis Martin of Vineburg Inn transacted business in the metropolis Monday returning home Tuesday morning.

Miss Mary Batto spent the last week end with Napa friends.

The Box Car Improvement Club has consolidated with the Five O'clock Tea Club and the new organization will hereafter be known as "The Historican Debating Society of Vineburg."

R. W. Vernon has received the welcome news that his son, "Dick" has arrived in New York and expects to return to "Home Sweet Home."

Frederick Batto Jr., was the week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. August Figone in San Francisco.

BUTTON REPORTS SON IMPROVING SLOWLY

Sam Button has been up from Vallejo for a few days attending to his property interests at Boyes Springs. Mr. Button reports the condition of his son, Ray, as improved although the injuries he received while at work in the Mare Island navy yard are still troublesome and he has never regained the use of his left hand. He is still under treatment by specialists and is making his home in San Francisco. Young Button suffered a fall from a scaffolding which a derrick precipitated a great distance below carrying the workmen with it. The Boyes Springs worker fell on his left side with such force that his jaw was dislocated, teeth knocked out and hip broken and his arm and hand badly injured also. He was in the hospital many months.

Mrs. A. Tietjen (Nellie Gordenker) and her husband have been up to the Gordenker ranch above Glen Ellen visiting Mrs Olga Gordenker,, who has been ill. On Tuesday the former Glen Ellen girl and Mr. Tietjen tried their fishermans luck along the trout streams in that viveinity.

JUDGE SEAWELL GRANTS FINAL DIVORCE DECREE

Judge Seawell on Monday signed final decree of divorce in action of Amanda Waytt vs. Wm. Wyatt, wherein custody of two minor sons is awarded to mother and defendant is ordered to pay alimony of $15 a month for the support and maintenance of the children, besides costs and counsel fees.

The Congregational Ladies Aid will meet at Mrs. H. C. Lutgens next Tuesday.

There will be an examination for rural mail carriers April 26th at Santa Rosa and Sausalito for Sonoma county rural service.

Mrs. D. Mazza Dropped Dead at Home Here Yesterday

Mrs. D. Mazza, a sister of Mrs. Chas. Dal Poggetto, dropped dead Friday while preparing the noonday meal. Her husband, hearing a fall, rushed into the house to find the lifeless body of his wife who had fallen to the floor.

Deceased leaves two children, Angelina and Giuseppi, to mourn her passing. She was about 53 years of age.

GLEN ELLEN CLUB NOTES

Notwithstanding the gloominess of the weather and the fact that the school elections for trustees were going on, quite a few of the mothers of Glen Ellen gathered in Mayflower hall last Friday to hear and learn about Child Welfare Work.

Our president, Mrs. Olga Gordenker, made short work of the regular business of the club in order to give as much time as possible to the program.

The committee on Child Welfare, Miss Harriet Brand, Mrs. McCartney and Mrs. Sophie Weise, by their report showed splendid work done during the week, visiting 22 families and making arrangements to take the babies to the clinics either in Santa Rosa or Sonoma during the drive.

The county nurse , Miss Clara Rickard, gave a fine talk explaining her work in the schools, the clinics and in the tubercular cases, proving to us how sorely needed a permanent nurse is.

Anna E. Cromwell read a paper on the meaning and object of this child welfare work which was thought very instructive.

Mrs. Maynard Rochambeau then read a paper on, "A Message to Garcia," a splendid review, applying it to club work, telling us how we might take "a message to Garcia" by being faithful to our club in attendance, in work and in every way, for which our president said she felt she must thank her at once.

Mrs. Agnes Cowan, Miss Cowan and Mrs. David Schieck were hostesses for the afternoon and entertained the ladies royally.

ANNA E. CROMWELL,
Club Reporter.

CITY TRUSTEES IN SESSION FOR APRIL

The city trustees met Wednesday night, the date of the regular April meeting, and besides the following bills ordered paid there were routine matters transacted:

Cal. Tel. & Light, $96; El Verano Lumber Co., $6.42; Sonoma W. L. & P. Co., $12.00; Sonoma City W. W. Co., $50; H. W. Gottenberg, $15; A. W. Adler, $1.65; J. H. Albertson, salary, $15; R. Quartaroli, $78; Expositor, $1.50; Expositor, $8.75.

Mrs. Eliza Shepard of the London ranch goes to Davis Tuesday, where she will be in attendance at the sale of registered Shorthorn cattle, under the auspices of the California Association. Nine head of the London ranch prize winners will be on sale and will no doubt command big prices Fred Reppert of Decatur, Indiana will officiate as auctioneer.

Geo. Carpenter and C. McCarthy of the National Ice Cream Company, of San Francisco, were in town Thursday to purchase a team of dappled gray horses for the company. George was the expert and a fine team was purchased from the Kiser Bros., of the Whitney ranch on Sonoma Mountain.

EXEMPTION BOARD AWAITS MUSTERING OUT

The exemption board of which Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan of this place was one of the loyal and faithful members has ceased it's functions and is now awaiting the honorable discharge to which it is entitled. These "soldiers" were true to the colors all through the war and it is safe to say that the personal of the Board could not have been improved upon if Sonoma county had been gone over with a fine tooth comb. Sonoma Valley will never forget how Joe Ryan traveled the road in his blue "fliver", rain or shine for 20 months or more to provide good soldiers for Uncle Sam's army.

SCHELLVILLE AND VICINITY

Mrs. C. Jensen and family have been visiting at the Millerick home. Mr. Jensen came up last Sunday.

Mrs. Tony Kiser and family were recent visitors to Sebastopol.

Jack Millerick has been over to Pope valley.

Mesdames H. Pauli and Joe Kiser were Napa visitors Thursday.

Mrs. Schackelton cared for the Will Church family during their recent illness.

Mrs. Eshbach has been the guest of Mrs. Clements at Eden Dale.

Friends of Sam Haven were sorry to learn of the death of his mother in Oakland this week.

Miss Laura L. Semino was united in marriage to Ernesto Pezzolo of Oakland last Saturday and the young lady's many friends here wish her much happiness. She is the daughter of our well known Wingo residents.

Mrs. Mary Carter is busy with spring house cleaning and later is planning an old fashioned sewing party which will be a delightful affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Erhardt Steiger attended a family dinner party at the Dowdall home in El Verano last Sunday in honor of the home coming from France of Leslie McKinnon the Dowdall's son-in-law.

Archie Gale and family were also invited guests.

Capt. Calquohn who has been visiting his family on lower Broadwoy left to resume command of his boat a Standard Oil carrier between the Atlantic coast and Brazil.

Mrs. Wernette and daughter have been visiting in San Francisco.
